NEWS RELEASE

GENEVA RESOURCES, INC. COMMENCES LEGAL PROCEEDINGS RELATING TO ITS VILCORO PROPERTY, PERU

CARSON CITY, NV., Nov. 10, 2008 - Geneva Resources, Inc.'s ("Geneva") (OTC: GVRS) President, Marcus Johnson reports that Geneva has commenced legal proceedings in the Supreme Court of British Columbia, Canada against each of St. Elias Mines Ltd. and John Brophy, P. Geol. The legal proceedings relate to an option to acquire from St. Elias Mines Ltd. a 66% interest in certain exploration concessions in Peru (the "Vilcoro Property") – see news release dated January 25, 2007 announcing the acquisition of the Vilcoro option.

Geneva is seeking rescission of the property option agreement and the return of all funds and shares advanced by Geneva to St. Elias Mines Ltd. on a number of grounds and, in the alternative, Geneva is seeking damages from each of St. Elias Mines Ltd. and John Brophy. John Brophy is a Canadian geologist living in Peru who was the Vice President of Exploration for St. Elias Mines Ltd. for a period of time and who was responsible for organizing and supervising the exploration program on the Vilcoro Property. Under the Vilcoro Option Agreement St. Elias Mines Ltd. was the operator of the Vilcoro Property.

Geneva alleges that St. Elias Mines Ltd. failed to properly discharge its duty as an operator of the Vilcoro Property.

Geneva also alleges that each of St. Elias Mines Ltd. and John Brophy failed to provide Geneva complete and accurate information relating to the ownership of the Vilcoro Property and to the ownership of the adjacent property, including failing to disclose that John Brophy and his wife had an interest in the Vilcoro Property and the adjacent property. Geneva also alleges that St. Elias Mines Ltd. and Mr. Brophy, or either of them, repeated the aforesaid wrongful non disclosures of interests of Mr. Brophy and his wife in the Vilcoro Property and the adjacent property in a series of technical reports and a series of news releases.

Also, Geneva has alleged that St. Elias Mines Ltd. used some of the exploration funds provided by Geneva to fund the exploration of the adjoining property.

As the legal proceedings have just been launched, neither St. Elias Mines Ltd. nor John Brophy has filed a Statement of Defence. All allegations of Geneva remain to be proved in Court.
